Putting the “Home” in Homeland Security
• “The maritime threat environment of the 21st Century requires broader scope and a more comprehensive vision.

• We must look beyond traditional surveillance of ports, waterways, and oceans, and continuously adapt to new challenges and opportunities.

• We must set priorities for existing and developing capabilities to efficiently minimize risks while contending with an uncertain future.”

• The National Plan to Achieve Maritime Domain Awareness for the National Strategy for Maritime Security Oct 2005

A NATIONAL SYSTEM
“The vastness and complexity of the maritime domain make public and private partnerships a prerequisite of preparedness and effective response.”

Vice Admiral Thad W. Allen before the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science & Transportation March 9, 2006
