

The U.S. Army Stryker Brigade Combat Team

SGM Brandon Jenks TCM-SBCT Sergeant Major, Ft. Benning, GA.
25 October 2011

Agenda

- Stryker characteristics and capabilities
- SBCTs flexibility
- Stryker performance in Afghanistan
- Successes in OEF
 - Increased SA
 - Casualty Evacuation
 - MGS
- Challenges in OEF
 - IEDs and training
 - Mine Detectors
 - Vehicle Recovery
- True strength of an SBCT
- Questions / Discussion

SBCT Capabilities and Characteristics

UNCLASSIFIED

3

- Very, very good truck!
- Eight wheeled armor vehicle
- Carries a 3 man crew, and 9 man infantry squad
- Travels up to 70 MPH
- Strategic, operational & tactical mobility
- Superior Infantry carrier vehicle
- Armed with an Remote Weapons Station (RWS)
- .50 Cal Machine gun and/or MK-19 40 MM Grenade launcher

UNCLASSIFIED

Stryker

UNCLASSIFIED

4

UNCLASSIFIED

Stryker

UNCLASSIFIED

5

UNCLASSIFIED

Afghanistan

UNCLASSIFIED

6

UNCLASSIFIED

The U.S. Army Stryker Brigade Combat Team

The U.S. Army Stryker Brigade Combat Team

AMERICA'S FINEST

The Stryker Brigade Combat Team

Questions/Discussion

TCM-SBCT Contact information

SGM BRANDON T. JENKS

Sergeant Major for TRADOC Capability Manager, Stryker Brigade Combat Teams

35 Ridgway Loop, Room 101
Fort Benning, GA. 31905

Email – brandon.t.jenks.mil@mail.mil

Office: 706-545-1332

Cell : 706-604-4360

Fax: 706-545-5355

