

NDIA T&E Conference Plenary Panel

T&E: Serving the Warfighter in a Cost Constrained Environment -- Army Perspective

Acting Assistant Deputy Under Secretary of the Army (Test and Evaluation)

Mr. David K. Grimm
16 March 2011

Army T&E: Serving the Warfighter in a Cost Constrained Environment

How can we:

- Reduce Amount of Testing?
- Increase Efficiency of Testing?
- Use T&E to Reduce the Cost of Acquisition?
- Some Risk Factors...
 - Technology
 - Integration
 - Program (cost, schedule, performance)

Army is:

- Synchronizing T&E ICW Integrated Network Efficiencies Effort
- Driving T&E Investment Collaboration
- Leveraging BRAC Relocations, Organizational Realignment, Process / Cultural Shifts
- Integrating Tests w / Training & Readiness Exercises
- Supporting Competitive Prototyping and All Available Data Sources

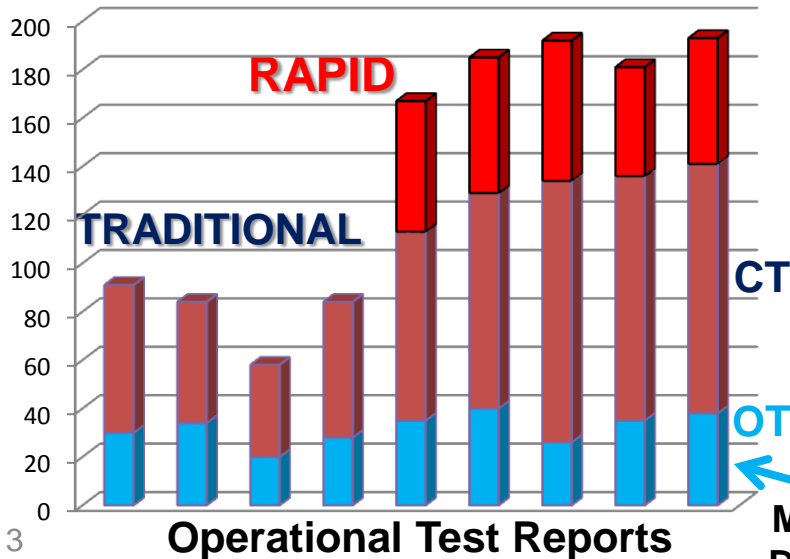

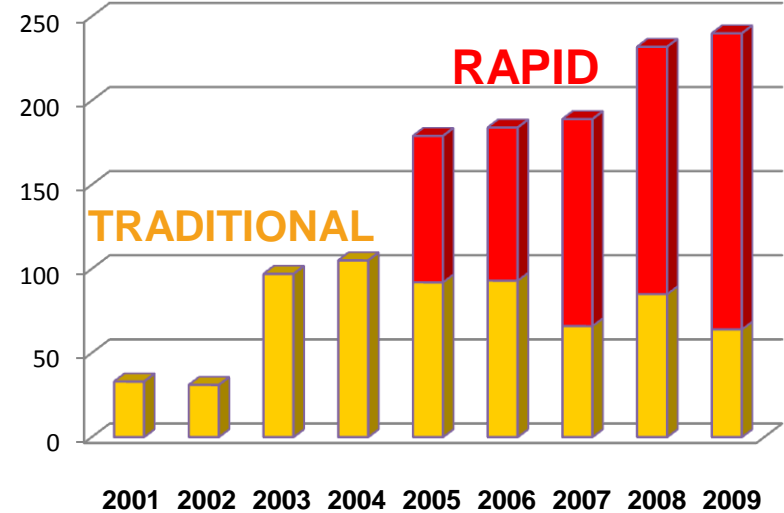

Context: Army Testing in a Time of War

“The Warfighter Needs to Know”

Developmental Test Reports

Evaluations & CLR

Sample of Army Test ‘Battle Rhythm’ Week of 24 APR – 01 MAY 2009

- 1,299 Active Test Projects
 - 129 Rapid Fielding Events
 - 237 Joint Tests / Projects
 - 663 Non-Eval Program Tests
 - 270 MDAP “PORs”

Mandated by
DoDI 5000.02