Homeland Security
Three Major Types of Business Opportunities at Homeland Security

• Contracts and Subcontracts

• Research and Development

• Grants to State and Local Governments
DHS

• Key premises:
  – DHS supports ALL of the federal small business programs
  – DHS has small business prime contracting and subcontracting opportunities
  – DHS uses pre-existing contract vehicles (such as the GSA FSS, DHS-wide IDIQs, MACS)
  – DHS uses open market procedures (FedBizOpps, FedBid)
Homeland Security Small Business Considerations

- 8(a)
- HUBZone
- Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business
- Woman-Owned Small Business & Economically Disadvantaged Woman-Owned Small Business
- General Small Business
- Small Business Teams or Joint Ventures
- Full and Open Competition (Subcontracting, Mentor-Protégé Teams)
Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program

• Mentor-Protégé Program was established in 2003 as a tool to support DHS’s small business program

• Published in the Federal Register via the DHS FAR supplement on December 4, 2003

• Consider participating in the Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program

• Details and application format available on the DHS Open for Business Website (www.openforbusiness.gov)
Purpose of DHS Mentor-Protégé Program

- Motivate and encourage approved mentors to provide developmental assistance to protégés
- Improve the performance of DHS contracts and subcontracts
- Foster the establishment of long-term business relationships
- Strengthen subcontracting opportunities and accomplishments
Assistance Provided by Mentors

- Technical and Management
- Financial, in the form of equity investments or loans
- Sub-contractual support
- Assist in performance of prime contracts. Mentor can provide subcontracting opportunities.
Requirements to Be a Mentor

- Large business firm (in good standing in the federal marketplace)

- Demonstrated commitment and capability to assist in the development of small business protégés

- Not on the federal Debarred or Suspended List
Incentives for Mentor Participation

Mentors may:

• Receive additional evaluation points toward the award of contracts during evaluation of competitive offers.

• Receive credit toward attaining subcontracting goals contained in their DHS Subcontracting plan(s).

• Be eligible for an annual award presented to the Mentor providing the most effective developmental support to a protégé.
Requirements to Be a Protégé

• A small business concern that is independently owned and operated, not dominant in its field, and meets federal size standards in its primary NAICS code

• Not on the federal Debarred or Suspended List

• Must be registered in CCR – www.ccr.gov
Incentive for Protégé Participation

In addition to the benefits available to mentors, protégés may:

• Gain opportunities to seek and perform government and commercial contracts

• Gain significant small business development
Mentor-Protégé Agreements Benefit DHS

The Mentor-Protégé Agreements help support DHS mission by:

• Strengthening subcontracting opportunities

• Achieving a potential increase in small business program goal accomplishments

• Establishing a relationship based on mutual agreement, trust, and meaningful business development.
Application and Agreement Process

• The mentor-protégé team jointly submits an agreement to the Mentor-Protégé Program Manager (MPPM)

• With 10 days of an e-mail receipt notification, the application is reviewed

• If review requires modification on original submittal, applicants have 30 days to resubmit a revised application and the MPPM has 30 days in which to re-review
