SOF Indirect Approach in Afghanistan

- Rapid development of Afghan Special Police and other elms: by, with and through.
- Selection / Education / Training / Operational mentorship.
- Professionalism of the force / trust of the people / limited Green on Blue issues.
- Commonality and rapid development of Coalition SOF in theatre.
- Fusion of Coalition Intelligence with Afghan Intelligence to allow proactive rather than reactive operations: Kabul 2012 V’s 2011.
- Synchronization of Coalition SOF effects in conjunction with the Afghan SOF like forces.
An Indirect Approach in the Future

- The future of Coalition SOF has some common themes:
  - Global economic environment.
  - Reduction in conventional forces.
  - Preference to utilize SOF over larger scale commitments / political decisions at the last safe moment or beyond.

- Coalition / Partnership of the willing:
  - Cooperative environment.
  - Commonality of threat/s.
  - Economies of scale.
  - Regional expertise.

- Challenges:
  - Ability and willingness to share on an even playing field.
  - Historical alliances: 5 eyes, NATO.
  - Capability inequities (budgets).
