

Integrated Precision Warfare Division

William J. Perry Award

In recognition of superb contributions to the advancement of precision strike systems, the National Defense Industrial Association's Integrated Precision Warfare Division takes great pride in awarding the William J. Perry Award to:

Mr. Frank St. John

Chief Operating Officer of the Lockheed Martin Corporation

Mr. St. John has led Lockheed Martin's pursuit of excellence in the field of precision strike. His determination and leadership spanning decades have delivered combat capabilities to the U.S. Armed Forces heralding precision advancements across the battlespace.